

George Bush Presidential Library and Museum Education Department and the Bush Library and Museum Storytellers Guild present

CELEBRATING THE JUNETEENTH
SESQUICENTENNIAL – 150 YEARS
FREEDOM’S LEGACY:
JENGO PAMOJA - “BUILDING TOGETHER”

Oba William King, The Poetic Storyteller, is a nationally recognized and award winning interactive traditional folk artist. He will share stories, play drums, engage and educate. We will celebrate children, families and communities of all cultures. Oba’s stories will reflect the theme of “Building Together” and encourage the participants to use their gifts in building a stronger community.
