

Proclamation

Offices of the Mayors and County Judge

- Whereas:* mental health is part of overall health; and
- Whereas:* mental health helps to sustain an individual's thought processes, relationships, productivity and ability to adapt to change or face adversity; and
- Whereas:* mental illness adversely affects those abilities and often is life-threatening in nature; and
- Whereas:* one in four adults experiences mental health problems in any given year and such problems can contribute to onset of mental illness; and
- Whereas:* one in 4 adults lives with mental illness such as major depression, bipolar disorder or schizophrenia; and
- Whereas:* approximately one-half of chronic mental illness begins by the age of 14 and three-quarters by age 24; and
- Whereas:* long delays—sometimes decades—often occur between the time symptoms first appear and when individuals get help; and
- Whereas:* early identification and treatment can make a profound difference in successful management of mental illness and recovery; and
- Whereas:* it is important to maintain mental health and learn the symptoms of mental illness in order to get help when it is needed; and
- Whereas:* every citizen and community can make a difference in helping end the silence and stigma that for too long has surrounded mental illness and discouraged people from getting help; and
- Whereas:* public education and civic activities can encourage mental health and help improve the lives of individuals and families affected by mental illness.
- Now, Therefore:* I, Andrew Nelson, Mayor of Bryan, Texas, and I, Karl Mooney, Mayor of College Station, Texas, and I, Duane Peters, Brazos County Judge, affirm that acting on behalf of our respective city council and commissioners court, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2018 as:
