RE: Refunds for agreed judgment rulings on Brazos Texas Land Development and Midway Hospitality LP

Dear Mr. Lasater:

I am including with this letter copies of two agreed judgments signed in June of this year. As previously discussed, this office does not have current collection amounts to cover the refunds that are required by the changes in the judgments. I have provided separate sheets on each judgment that lists the amount of the refund due from the ISD to each property owner, and the court ordered instructed handling of the refunds.

Additionally, I have included a copy of both judgments and a copy of a refunds due report from our collection system documenting the refunds created. The agreements require refunds delivered within 90 days of the agreement to avoid penalty and interest provided under Sec. 42.43 of the Texas Property Tax Code. Payment after that date would result in additional interest.

Once the payments are generated, I am requesting a copy of the remittance for my records. This will be my documentation and audit trail that will allow me to remove the refunds from the collection system. Please contact me with any questions you may have or if I can be of service in this matter.
Respectfully,

Kristeen Roe, CTA, PCC
