2021-2022

Explanation of Revisions

- More compassionate language that shows we believe parents are supporting their child's education, such as
 - Encouraging your child to put a high priority on education CHANGED TO Continue to encourage your child to put a high priority on education.
- For parents to have access to BISD info, board/ policy updates, etc. added verbiage that "these items will be available at the campus reception" rather than only being available online

Examples

- Attainment of the distinguished level of achievement entitles a student to be considered for automatic admission to a public four year college or university in Texas, depending on ~~his or her rank in class~~ class rank.
- A student who will need to leave school during the day must bring a note from ~~his or her~~ a parent that morning and follow the campus sign-out procedures before leaving the campus.
- ARD is the admission, review, and dismissal committee convened for each student who is identified as needing a full and individual evaluation for special education services. The eligible student and ~~his or her~~ parents are members of the committee.
