

ORDER

REGULATION OF SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESSES

WHEREAS, there is the potential for sexually oriented business establishments in the unincorporated area of Brazos County, Texas that require special supervision from the public safety agencies of the County in order to protect and preserve the health, safety and welfare of the patrons of such businesses as well as the citizens of Brazos County; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners Court finds that sexually oriented businesses are frequently used for unlawful sexual activities including prostitution and human trafficking;

WHEREAS, the concern over sexually transmitted diseases is a legitimate health concern of the County that demands reasonable regulation of sexually oriented businesses in order to protect the health and well-being of the citizens of Brazos County;

WHEREAS, licensing is a legitimate and reasonable means of accountability to ensure that operators of sexually oriented businesses comply with reasonable regulations and to ensure that operators do not knowingly allow their establishments to be used as places of illegal sexual activity or solicitation;

WHEREAS, there is convincing documented evidence that sexually oriented businesses, because of their very nature, decrease the desirability of using areas surrounding them for residential purposes and for establishing and operating businesses, causing increased crime and the downgrading of property values;

WHEREAS, it is recognized that sexually oriented businesses, due to their nature, have serious objectionable operational characteristics, particularly when they are located in close proximity to each other, thereby contributing to urban and rural blight and downgrading the quality of life in areas surrounding them;

WHEREAS, the Commissioners Court desires to minimize and control these adverse effects and thereby protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens; protect the citizens from increased crime; preserve the quality of life; preserve the property values and character of surrounding neighborhoods; and deter the spread of urban and rural blight;

WHEREAS, it is not the intent of this order to suppress any speech activities protected by the First Amendment, but to enact a content neutral ordinance which addresses the secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses; and

WHEREAS, it is not the intent of the Commissioners Court to condone or legitimize the promotion of obscene material, and the Commissioners Court recognizes that state law prohibits the promotion of obscene materials, and expects and encourages state enforcement officials to enforce state obscenity statutes against any such illegal activities in Brazos County.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it ORDERED by the Commissioners Court of Brazos County, Texas:

ARTICLE I PURPOSE AND INTENT

1. It is the purpose of this order to regulate sexually oriented businesses to promote the health, safety, morals and general welfare of the citizens of Brazos County, and to establish reasonable and uniform regulations to prevent the concentration of sexually oriented businesses within the County, and to prevent the location of such businesses in proximity to residential uses, schools, places of worship, places of public assembly, public parks and childcare facilities. The provisions of this order have neither the purpose nor effect of imposing a limitation or restriction on the content of any communicative materials, including sexually oriented materials. Similarly, it is not the intent nor effect of this order to restrict or deny access by adults to sexually oriented materials protected by the First Amendment or to deny access by the distributors and exhibitors of lawfully presented sexually oriented entertainment to their intended market. The promotion of obscene material not protected by the First Amendment, is enforceable through separate criminal sanctions under the penal code.
2. Statutory authority. It is the intent of the Commissioners Court that the locational regulations are promulgated pursuant to Local Government Code Chapter 243, as they apply to sexually oriented businesses.

ARTICLE IV LOCATION STANDARDS FOR SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESSES

1. Sensitive uses. The following uses located in the unincorporated area of Brazos County shall be considered sensitive uses for purposes of determining the location of a sexually oriented business.
 - a. A place of worship;
 - b. A school;

- c. A public park;
 - d. A place of public assembly;
 - e. A childcare facility;
 - f. A residential use.
- 2. Separation distance
 - a. No Class I sexually oriented business shall be located within one thousand, five hundred (1,500) feet of a sensitive use.
 - b. No Class II sexually oriented business shall be located within two thousand (2000) feet of a sensitive use.
- 3. Distance between businesses. No sexually oriented business within the unincorporated area of Brazos County shall be located closer than the distance prescribed by this section for separation from sensitive uses from another sexually oriented business of the same class. The separation requirement for sexually oriented businesses of different classes shall be the greater of the distances prescribed by this section for separation from sensitive uses. For purposes of this section, measurements shall be taken from an established sexually oriented business regardless of whether such business is located in an incorporated or an unincorporated area of Brazos County.
- 4. Multiple businesses prohibited. Any establishment containing or constituting more than one defined sexually oriented business of any class shall be prohibited.
- 5. Measurement of distances. Measurement of the distances prescribed by this section shall be made in a straight line, without regard to intervening structures or objects, from the nearest portion of the building or structure used as a part of the premises where a sexually oriented business is conducted, to the nearest property line of the premises of a place of worship, school, or public park, place of public assembly, child care facility, or a residential use situated on a platted and recorded lot 1.5 acres or less in area, or a proposed lot that has received final plat approval for residential use of 1.5 acres or less. If the residential use is located on a lot or parcel which exceeds 1.5 acres in size, the distances prescribed by this section shall be measured in a straight line, without regard to intervening structures or objects, from the nearest property line of the premises on which each business is located.
- 6. Pre-established business. A lawfully operating sexually oriented business shall not be rendered unlawful by the location of a sensitive use, subsequent to the grant or renewal of a sexually oriented business license, closer to the business than the separation requirements prescribed by this section. This provision applies only to the renewal of a valid license, and does not apply when an application for a sexually oriented business license is submitted after the license or period of authorized non-conformity has expired, the license has been revoked, or the licensed sexually oriented business has been abandoned.
- 7. Abandonment. A licensed sexually oriented business shall be considered abandoned when its operation has been discontinued voluntarily for a period exceeding sixty (60) days.
- 8. Non-conforming business. Any sexually oriented business lawfully operating on the date of any amendment to this order that is rendered non-conforming with respect to the separation requirements established by such amendment thereafter shall be deemed non-conforming use. Such use will be permitted to continue for a period not to exceed one (1) year, unless sooner destroyed, abandoned or terminated for any reason. Such non-conforming use shall not be increased, enlarged, extended or altered within such period. If two (2) sexually oriented businesses are within prescribed separation requirements on the effective date of an amendatory order that increases such distance requirements, the sexually oriented business which was first established and continually operating at a particular location shall be deemed the conforming use and the later established business shall be deemed non-conforming.

9. Frontage on a publicly dedicated roadway. All sexually oriented businesses must be located on a lot fronting on a paved, publicly dedicated roadway.

ARTICLE V

ADDITIONAL STANDARDS FOR SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESSES AND SEXUALLY ORIENTED MEDIA DISPLAYS

1. Exterior design. The premises of all sexually oriented businesses will be so constructed as to ensure that the interior of the premises is not observable from the exterior of the building.
 - a. In addition, all windows will be covered to prevent viewing of the interior of the building from the outside and all doorways not constructed with an anteroom or foyer will be covered to prevent observation of the interior of the premises from the exterior of the building.
 - b. Light sources shall be oriented toward the center of the site or shielded to not be visible from the property line. This applies to refractory lenses which extend beyond the lighting fixture and are designed to redirect the lighting source horizontally. This does not apply to neon or internally lit signs, or to decorative lighting with 15 watts or less per bulb.
 - c. The minimum average intensity of lighting for on-site parking and walkway areas shall be 1.5-foot candles.
 - d. Signage shall conform to any applicable regulations of the extraterritorial jurisdiction of a municipality.
 - e. Parking areas shall not be obscured by an opaque fence, wall, obscuring vegetation, or other barriers from views from the public roadway where the business takes access.
2. Design of Entertainment Area. The premises of a Class II sexually oriented business shall be designed so that all entertainment on the premises takes place only in a location and manner meeting all the following conditions:
 - a. In an open room of at least six hundred (600) square feet unobstructed by any interior walls or other structures that shield the view of activities occurring within the room; however, a sexually oriented motel may provide entertainment in rooms having at least two hundred and fifty (250) square feet per room.

- b. On a stage, elevated at least thirty-six (36) inches above the level on which customers sit or stand; and
 - c. On a stage with a horizontal separation of at least thirty-six (36) inches between the edge of the stage or platform and the nearest space to which customers shall have access. The horizontal separation shall be physically enforced by a partial wall, rail, or other physical barrier, which may be located either on the stage to keep the entertainers back from the edge or on the floor to keep customers back from the stage.
3. Interior design for sexually oriented cabarets or theaters and motion picture theaters. The interior of the premises shall be configured in such a manner that there is an unobstructed view of the premises to which any customer is permitted access for any purpose excluding restrooms. Restrooms may not contain video reproduction equipment. The premises shall be equipped with overhead lighting fixtures of sufficient intensity to illuminate every place to which customers are permitted access at an illumination of not less than one (1) foot candle as measured at the floor level.
4. Sexually oriented media display.
 - a. This subsection shall apply to any establishment in which sexually oriented media at any time constitutes or occupies more than ten percent (10%) but not more than forty percent (40%) of the store's inventory or merchandise displayed for sale or rental, not including store rooms, stock areas, bathrooms, or any portion of the business not opened to the public, at any time.
 - b. Sexually oriented media in an establishment to which this subsection applies shall be kept in a separate room or section of the store, which room or section shall:
 - i. Be physically and visually separate from the rest of the store by an opaque wall or durable material reaching at least eight (8) feet high or to the ceiling, whichever is less;
 - ii. Be located so that the entrance to it is as far as reasonably practicable from media or other inventory in the store likely to be of particular interest to children; and
 - iii. Have access controlled by electronic or other means to provide assurance that persons under age eighteen (18) will not gain admission and that the general public will not accidentally enter such room or section.
5. Security.
 - a. Commissioned Security Officers shall be required to be on duty at the establishment during all business hours. The number of Commissioned Security Officers required on the premises is dependent on the following facility capacities.

Capacity	Security Officers
101-200	1
201-300	2
501-700	4

- b. Surveillance Cameras. As specified in Exhibit “A” surveillance cameras shall be permanently installed in a manner that provides coverage of the parking lot or lots and separate cameras installed in a manner that will provide coverage of the faces of all persons entering and all persons exiting all buildings.
 - c. Data Storage. All security camera data shall be stored for a minimum of one (1) year. Security camera data shall be provided to law enforcement within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving a written request from one (1) or more cameras covering a specific period of time.
 - d. Signage. Surveillance signage shall be posted at each point of ingress to any building notifying all persons entering the building that the entrances and exits are covered by surveillance cameras.
 - e. Compliance. Failure of a licensee to comply with the requirements for security cameras, signage or providing camera data shall result in the immediate suspension of any and all licenses authorized for the location. The suspension will continue until the licensee comes into compliance. Suspension shall be lifted within twenty-four (24) hours of proof of compliance being provided to the Commissioners Court of Brazos County.
6. Hours of Operation. Sexually Oriented Businesses may only operate during the following hours:
- a. Monday-Friday: 7:00 a.m. – midnight
 - b. Saturday: 7:00 a.m. – 1:00 a.m.
 - c. Sunday: 10:00 a.m. - midnight

ARTICLE VI

LICENSE REQUIRED FOR SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESS

- 1. License required. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate or maintain a sexually oriented business in the County unless the owner, operator or lessee thereof has obtained a sexually oriented business license from the County, or to operate such business after such license has expired or has been revoked or suspended by the County or following abandonment of business.
- 2. Employment in an unlicensed business is prohibited. It is unlawful for any entertainer, server, employee, operator or owner to knowingly perform any work, service or entertainment directly related to the operation of an unlicensed sexually oriented business.
- 3. Presumptions. The failure to post a sexually oriented business license in the manner required herein shall be prima facie evidence that such business has not obtained such a license. In addition, it shall be prima facie evidence that any entertainer, employee, or owner who performs any business, service or entertainment in a sexually oriented business in which a sexually oriented business license is not posted in the manner required herein had knowledge that such business is not licensed.

4. One license per business. A separate license is required for each sexually oriented business. A sexually oriented business license shall be issued only for the sexually oriented business use listed on the application and only for single described premises. Any change in the type of sexually oriented business use shall invalidate the outstanding sexually oriented business license and require the licensee to obtain a new license for the change in use. The establishment or maintenance of more than one sexually oriented business in the same building, structure or portion thereof is prohibited.
5. Term of license. All sexually oriented business licenses shall be issued for a period of one year, subject to annual renewal.
6. Transfer prohibited. A licensee shall not transfer his license to other persons or entities, nor shall a licensee operate a sexually oriented business under the authority of a license at any place other than the address designated in the application.
7. License format. Each sexually oriented business license shall identify the class and type of business; state the street address and legal description of the premises at which the business is to be operated; state that the license is not transferable to other persons or entities; and identify the calendar year and month for which it is issued.
8. Additions to license. A person or other entity controlling more than ten percent (10%) of the sexually oriented business may be added to an existing license by providing the required licensing background information and successfully passing the required licensing background checks. If such addition is interpreted by the County to be a license transfer, it shall be prohibited.
9. Employee permits. All employees and entertainers employed by a Class II sexually oriented business shall be required to have a permit issued by the Brazos County Special Projects Administrator. The employee permit must be on the premises of the sexually oriented business and easily accessible at all times that the employee is on the premises. The employee may be required to show proof of permit to law enforcement. If the employee does not have the issued permit on the premises, their permit will be revoked for a period of 180 days.

ARTICLE VII

LICENSE APPLICATION PROCEDURES

1. Application content. All persons desiring to secure a license to operate a sexually oriented business shall make a verified application with the Brazos County Special Projects Administrator. All applications shall be submitted in the name of any owner of the sexually oriented business, who shall be deemed the applicant. The application shall be signed by the applicant and notarized. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall be signed by its president. If the applicant is a partnership, the application shall be signed by a partner. If the applicant is a limited liability company, the application shall be signed by the managing director. In all other instances where the owner is not an individual, the application shall be signed by an authorized representative of the owner. The County Special Projects Administrator shall require proof of authorization before accepting an application. All applications shall be submitted on a form supplied by the

Brazos County Special Projects Administrator and shall require all of the following information:

- a. The name of the sexually oriented business and the class and type of sexually oriented business to be operated on the licensed premises.
- b. The street address and legal description of the premises at which the sexually oriented business is to be operated.
- c. The name, any aliases, mailing address for receipt of notices, home address and telephone number, occupation, date and place of birth, social security number and fingerprints of each individual owner and each operator of the premises. If the owner is a partnership, this information shall be supplied for each general or limited partner. If the owner is a corporation or limited liability company, the same information shall be supplied for all stockholders or members who own more than ten percent (10%) interest in the company.
- d. The tax identification number and registered agent if the owner is required to have a tax identification number or registered agent, or designation of an owner or operator for purposes of notice and service of process. It shall be the duty of the applicant to update such information during the term of the license.
- e. The name, address and telephone number of the owner of the premises, if different from above, where the sexually oriented business will be located.
- f. A statement from the applicant whether the applicant and each person required to be identified in the application pursuant to this section, is previously operating in this or another city, county or state, has had a sexually oriented business license of any type, and if that license has ever been revoked or suspended, and if so, the reason for the suspension or revocation and the business activity subject to the suspension or revocation.
- g. A statement from the applicant and each person required to be identified in the application pursuant to this section, expressing the following:
 - i. That each such person has not been convicted of, or released from confinement for conviction of, or received an order of deferred adjudication or any felony, whichever is later, within five (5) years immediately preceding this application; or
 - ii. Has not been convicted nor received an order of deferred adjudication on a misdemeanor, or released from confinement for conviction of a misdemeanor or municipal or county order violation, whichever event is later, within two (2) years immediately preceding the application, where such felony, misdemeanor or municipal or county order violation constitutes a specified criminal act.
- h. The applicant and each person required to be identified in the application pursuant to this section shall attach two copies of a recent photo to his or her application form.
- i. A statement signed under oath that the applicant has personal knowledge of the information contained therein is true and correct and that the applicant has read the provisions of the Brazos County Order Regulating Sexually Oriented Businesses.

2. Schematic diagram required. Upon application for a sexually oriented business license, the application shall be accompanied by a schematic diagram of the interior premises showing a plan thereof specifying the location of one or more operator stations and the location of all overhead lighting fixtures and designating any portion of the premises in which customers will not be permitted. The diagram shall also designate the place at which the permit will be conspicuously posted, if granted. The diagram shall also provide exterior information to identify points of egress and ingress, parking, loading, fencing, lighting and signage. A professionally prepared diagram in the nature of an engineer's or architect's blueprint shall to be required; however each diagram should be oriented to the north or to some designated street or object and should be drawn to a designated scale or with marked dimensions sufficient to show the various internal dimensions of all areas of the interior of the premises to an accuracy of plus or minus six inches. The County Special Projects Administrator may waive the foregoing diagram for renewal applications if the applicant adopts a diagram that was previously submitted and certifies that the internal and external configuration of the premises has not been altered since it was prepared.
3. Incomplete application. Failure to provide the information and documentation required herein shall constitute an incomplete application and shall not be processed by the County. The Brazos County Special Projects Administrator shall notify the applicant whether or not the application is complete within ten (10) calendar days of the date the application is received. In the event the Special Projects Administrator has determined that the application is incomplete, the notification sent by first class certified mail to the applicant shall include a written explanation of the reason(s) why the application is incomplete.
4. Fees. The Commissioners Court may alter the following fees at their discretion:
 - a. The initial application fee for a Class I sexually oriented business license is $1,500, and said fee shall be paid at the time the initial application is submitted to the Brazos County Special Projects Administrator.
 - b. The initial application fee for a Class II sexually oriented business license is $5,000, and said fee shall be paid at the time the initial application is submitted to the Brazos County Special Projects Administrator.
 - c. The annual fee for a sexually oriented business license is $500.00 and said fee shall be paid within fourteen (14) days of the submission of an application for renewal of a license.
 - d. Manager Permits for managers or supervisors of a sexually oriented business are $400, and must be renewed annually.
 - e. Entertainer Permits for entertainers of a sexually oriented business are $200, and must be renewed annually.
 - f. Employee Permits for non-entertainer employees of a sexually oriented business are $200, and must be renewed annually.

ARTICLE VIII
PROCESSING AND RULING ON LICENSE APPLICATION

1. Posting of notice. Each applicant for an initial sexually oriented business license shall, at least sixty (60) days prior to the filing of the application for the license, place a sign of the size and lettering as required by Brazos County, but in no event less than twenty-four (24) inches by thirty-six (36) inches and in two (2) inch lettering, which provides notification and information specifically stating A SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESS LICENSE APPLICATION IS PROPOSED TO BE FILED WITH BRAZOS COUNTY, along with the date on which the application is proposed to be filed. The applicant shall erect the sign along the property's public road frontage so as to be clearly visible and legible from the public road. One sign shall be erected for each five hundred (500) foot increment of each public road frontage on said property existing or any part thereof. The sign shall remain on the premises until a decision is rendered on the application.
2. Application processing. Upon receipt of a complete application and the required filing fee for a sexually oriented business license, the Brazos County Special Projects Administrator shall immediately transmit a copy of the application to the Brazos County Sheriff's Office and Fire Chief of the associated precinct for investigation of the application. It shall be the duty of the Brazos County Sheriff to investigate such applications to determine whether the information contained in the application is accurate and whether the application meets the requirements herein regarding the absence of specified criminal acts. It shall be the duty of the Fire Chief of the associated precinct or their designee, to determine whether the structure where the sexually oriented business will be conducted complies with the requirements and meets the standards of the applicable fire code. The Brazos County Sheriff and Fire Chief of the associated precinct or designee shall report the results of their investigation to the Brazos County Special Projects Administrator no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date the application is deemed complete. The Special Projects Administrator shall investigate and determine whether the application meets all other requirements of this order.
3. Decision. The Brazos County Commissioners Court shall approve or disapprove the application based upon the findings of the Sheriff's Office and Fire Chief of the associated precinct or designee within sixty (60) days from the date the application is deemed complete by the Special Projects Administrator, in accordance with the criteria in Article X. The Special Projects Administrator shall issue a license only if the appropriate license fee has been paid, the applicant is qualified and all applicable requirements set forth herein are met. The applicant shall be notified in writing of the decision within ten (10) calendar days thereof.
4. Renewal of license. A license issued under this subchapter may be renewed by submitting an application to the Special Projects Administrator on the application forms provided for renewal purposes. Licenses shall expire one year from the date of issuance. Renewal applications for such licenses shall be submitted at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the license. Upon timely application thereof, a license issued under the provisions of this subchapter shall be renewed by issuance of a new license upon demonstration that the criteria for issuance of the original license have been met at the time the application is submitted for renewal.

ARTICLE IX APPEAL OF LICENSE DECISION

1. Appeals Board. The Commissioners Court of Brazos County shall appoint an appeals board for licenses issued under this order. The appeals board shall include a representative from the Sheriff's Office, Fire Department of the associated precinct, Health District, Road and Bridge and Legal.
2. Appeal processing. An applicant may appeal an unfavorable decision by filing a written petition with the County Clerk requesting a hearing on the denial of the application within ten (10) calendar days of the date the applicant receives notification of the Commissioners Court decision. The appeal shall be scheduled to be heard within twenty (20) calendar days of the date the petition is received in the office of the County Clerk. The County Clerk shall give written notice to the applicant of the time and place for the hearing on the appeal.
3. Decision. The Commissioners Court shall issue a decision with findings within (10) calendar days after any hearing held in accordance with this section and in accordance with the criteria in Article X. The minutes of the Commissioners Court meeting shall show the action taken on the application, and if the license is granted, the Commissioners Court shall issue the proper license.
4. Notification of decision on appeal. If the application for a license is disapproved on appeal, the applicant shall be sent a letter of notification by registered or certified mail within five (5) calendar days to the applicants last known mailing address, and the letter of notification shall state the basis for such disapproval. Any applicant aggrieved by the decision may seek judicial review in the appropriate court.
5. Judicial review. An applicant may seek judicial review of the denial of a license by the Special Projects Administrator or following the decision of the Commissioners Court on their appeal, at their election.

ARTICLE X CRITERIA FOR DECISION ON SEXUALLY ORIENTED BUSINESS LICENSES

No license for a sexually oriented business shall be issued or renewed if one or more of the following conditions exist:

1. The applicant knowingly failed to supply all of the information requested on the application.
2. The applicant knowingly gave materially false, fraudulent or untruthful information on the application.

3. The applicant, any other owner, the spouse of any owner, or any operator has been convicted, released from incarceration for conviction or has received an order of deferred adjudication on any specified criminal act during the time period set forth herein.
4. The applicant or any other owner has had a sexually oriented business license or comparable license revoked or suspended during the past five (5) years.
5. The proposed business does not meet locational standards of Article IV.
6. The proposed business does not meet the design standards for the particular type of business required by Article V.
7. For renewal applications, a suspension or revocation proceeding is pending, in which case the decision on the application shall be rendered following the outcome of the suspension or revocation proceeding.
8. The applicant is not in compliance with Texas Business and Commerce Code Chapter 102, Sexually Oriented Businesses.

ARTICLE XI

STANDARDS OF OPERATION

It shall be unlawful for any sexually oriented business, or operator, entertainer or employee of a sexually oriented business, or any customer of any sexually oriented business, while on or about premises of the business to knowingly fail to adhere to the following standards of operation, as applicable:

1. Standards for sexually oriented entertainment. A sexually oriented business offering sexually oriented entertainment shall comply with the following standards:
 - a. A sexually oriented cabaret or modeling studio shall assure that no person other than an entertainer may occupy a stage constructed in accordance with Article V for purposes of providing sexually oriented entertainment during the course of any performance.
 - b. Entertainment at a sexually oriented cabaret or modeling studio is restricted to the elevated stage area as prescribed in Article V; and
 - c. Tips for entertainers shall be collected only in containers that are accessible to customers and not located on the stage.
 - d. Sexually oriented entertainment shall take place in an open room in accordance with Article V.
2. Establishment license. A sexually oriented business shall post the license issued under this order in a conspicuous, easily viewable location, at eye level, in the portion of the business that is frequented by its customers and that is well lit.
3. Age restriction. No person under the age of eighteen (18) years, whether an employee or customer of the establishment, shall be permitted on the premises of any sexually oriented business, or in any area reserved for the display of sexually oriented media in an establishment subject to Article V (5).
4. On-site attire. The operator of any sexually oriented business shall not permit any entertainer, server or other employee to appear nude or semi-nude or in a state of nudity or semi-nudity on the premises.

5. Exterior display. No sexually oriented business will be conducted in any manner that permits the observation of live performers engaged in an erotic depiction or dance or media or any other material or persons depicting, describing, or relating to specified sexual activities or specified anatomical areas, or persons in a state of nudity or semi-nudity, to be observed from any exterior location by display, decoration, sign, show window or other opening.
6. Specified criminal acts and specified sexual activities prohibited. No operator shall permit any employee, server, entertainer or customer of a sexually oriented business to engage in any specified criminal act or any specified sexual activity on the premises of business.
7. Terms of license. It shall be the duty of the owners and operators to ensure that all of the terms of the sexually oriented business license, including the standards in Article V of this order, are continuously maintained, and to ensure that no customer is permitted access to any area of the premises which has been designated as an area in which customers will not be permitted pursuant to the terms of the license and the standards of this order.
8. Manager on duty. It is the duty of the operator of the premises to ensure that a manager is on duty at all times that any customer is present inside the premises.
9. Interior and Exterior Building Standards. All sexually oriented businesses shall maintain the required standards of interior and exterior design prescribed by Article V. No alteration of the building's exterior or interior design or premises shall be undertaken without written authorization from the Brazos County Commissioners Court.
10. Inspections. Any sexually oriented business shall be deemed to have consented to periodic entry into and inspection of the business premises by the Sheriff's Office for the limited purpose of determining whether such business is in compliance with this section. Such entry and inspection shall take place during hours when such business is open to the public, provided however, that the owner may request a different time for inspection. A person who operates a sexually oriented business or their agent or employee commits an offense if he refuses to permit a lawful inspection of the premises by a representative of the Sheriff's Office at any time it is occupied or open for business.
11. Employee Permits. All persons employed by a sexually oriented business must have possession of their issued employee permit during any time they are on the premises. Failure to provide law enforcement with employee's issued permit upon demand will result in an automatic 180 day revocation of license. After the 180 day revocation period has expired, the employee may reapply for another permit with Brazos County.

ARTICLE XII

SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSE

1. Review for compliance. When the Special Projects Administrator has information that there has been a violation of any provision of this order by a licensee or at a licensed premises, or any of the conditions required for the issuance of a license have changed, or that anything on the application for the license may have been untrue or incomplete, then the Special Projects Administrator shall schedule a hearing before the Commissioners Court in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. Hearing on suspension or revocation. Where a hearing is required under this section, written notice shall be sent to the licensee within five (5) calendar days of the complaint. The date of the hearing shall occur no less than ten (10) and no more than thirty (30) calendar days after written notice has been sent to the licensee that a complaint has been filed. The hearing shall be to make findings of fact in the matter.
 - a. Notice of such hearing shall be in writing, and shall set forth the reason for the hearing or the complaint against the licensee, and shall be serviced upon the licensee in person or by registered or certified mail to the address listed in the license application. If the Special Projects Administrator is unable to serve notice upon the licensee in person, and any notice sent by mail is returned by the postal service, the Sheriff shall cause such notice to be posted at the principal entrance of the sexually oriented business, and such posting shall be a valid means of service.
 - b. An applicant, licensee, or complainant shall have full right to be represented by counsel and to produce witnesses and other evidence, and to pose questions to all witnesses who appear before them. Oral evidence shall be taken only upon oath or affirmation. All proceedings in such hearings shall be recorded and transcribed as required by law. The Commissioners Court may receive evidence relevant to the issues from the applicant or licensee or from other sources.
3. Decision on alleged violation and notice. The Commissioners Court shall issue findings of fact and an order within thirty (30) calendar days of the close of the hearing. The Court may dismiss the complaint, or suspend or revoke a license previously issued, or renew or refuse to renew a license previously issued. The Court's order shall be served upon the applicant, licensee or complainant in person or by registered or certified mail to the applicant's, licensees or complainants last known address. If the Special Projects Administrator is unable to serve such order upon the licensee or applicant in the manner stated in this subsection, the Sheriff shall cause such order to be posted at the principal entrance of the regulated use, and such posting shall be a valid means of service. If the Commissioners Court finds and concludes from the evidence that the applicant or licensee has violated any of the provisions listed in this order, the Court may suspend or revoke the license in accordance with the standards in subsection 5 or 6, as the case may be, or in the case of a renewal application, refuse to renew such license, in accordance with the provisions of license renewal.
4. License to remain in effect. Until a decision has been reached by the Commissioners Court in the proceedings under this section, the license of the sexually oriented business shall remain in effect.
5. Criteria for suspension. Upon a finding of a violation of any of the following provisions of this order by the Commissioners Court, the sexually oriented business license shall be suspended;
