

EXHIBIT “A”

- (a) Each and every security surveillance cameras must:
 - (1) Record in a digital color format and in high-resolution with a minimum of 2000P resolution.
 - (2) Display the correct date and time of the recording and the location of the camera.
 - (3) Capture clear images in darkness or low lighting.
- (b) Data captured on the security camera surveillance system hard drive, server or cloud storage system must be in a retrievable format and must be able to be retrieved on an external device and must retain the highest resolution for a stored file.
- (c) The data provided must contain the appropriate software, viewer or codec necessary for playing the video on a system other than the parent security camera surveillance system and computers.
- (d) Security camera surveillance system and computer hard drive, server, or cloud storage system must have enough storage space to store three hundred and sixty-five (365) days of recorded data and must be capable of a system back up.