Fee Rates & Standard Billing Practices

Our standard billing rates vary based on upon the experience of the staff and are often billed at either a discount to account for less experienced staff who have less efficiency (i.e. we write off time) when performing engagement procedures or a premium to account for more experienced staff who operate at a high efficiency (time is written up). As such and although we track our time on each engagement as a data point, our standard invoices are billed based on the service provided. It can be thought of as a blend between fee for service, value billing and strict time billing like attorneys. I have included an example invoice attached. Below are the range of our billing rates at various levels of staff experience:

- Staff: $145 - $195
- Manager: $200 - $250
- Partner: $350

These rates are valid through June 30, 2026, at which point rates may increase by as much as 5% annually depending on the supply and demand of the market for labor and services, respectively.
