

JACKLYN NACIANCENO - BONHAM ELEMENTARY

At the Bryan ISD Board of Trustees meeting on June 15th, the board unanimously approved the appointment of Jacklyn Nacianceno as the new principal of Bonham Elementary School.

Mrs. Nacianceno currently serves as Assistant Principal at Johnson Elementary School in Bryan ISD, which currently holds the highest student performance accountability rating awarded by the Texas Education Agency. She brings more than 15 years of educational experience, all within Bryan ISD. Before transitioning into campus leadership, she served for seven years as an English Language Arts Instructional Coach, providing instructional support to teachers and helping advance student achievement across the district.

Mrs. Nacianceno began her career with Bryan ISD in 2010. She taught at Sam Rayburn Intermediate School before spending many years at Kemp-Carver Elementary School, where she made a lasting impact on the students and families she served. Throughout her tenure, she has built a reputation as a collaborative leader, passionate educator, and tireless advocate for student success.

A graduate of Texas A&M University, Nacianceno earned a bachelor's degree in English Literature and a master's degree in Special Education with an emphasis in Applied Behavior Analysis.

“Mrs. Nacianceno has been a difference-maker throughout her career in Bryan ISD,” said Superintendent Ginger Carrabine. “She leads with passion, builds strong relationships, and is driven by excellence in all she does. We value her unwavering commitment to our students and staff, and we are confident she will continue to lead the Bonham Buccaneers to success and continue the momentum that is propelling the campus forward.”

As principal of Bonham Elementary, Nacianceno will work alongside students, staff, and families to continue fostering a culture of academic excellence, meaningful relationships, and opportunities for every student to thrive.

Bryan ISD congratulates Ms. Nacianceno on her new role and looks forward to the positive impact she will make at Bonham Elementary School.
