

WHITNEY FOREMAN - RAYBURN INTERMEDIATE

The Bryan ISD Board of Trustees approved Whitney Foreman as the new principal of Rayburn Intermediate School during its June 15 meeting.

Ms. Foreman currently serves as Assistant Principal at Houston Elementary in Bryan ISD, where she was promoted in 2024. The school currently holds the highest student performance accountability rating awarded by the Texas Education Agency. She began her teaching career at Anson Jones Elementary before moving to Bryan High School, where she taught English Language Arts (ELA). She later joined Normangee ISD, where she served for five years, further strengthening her instructional expertise and leadership experience. In 2023, she returned to Bryan ISD as an Instructional Coach at Rayburn Intermediate School.

A graduate of Texas A&M University, Ms. Foreman earned her bachelor's degree in English and later completed a master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Kansas. She is currently in the final stages of her doctoral degree in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies at the University of Kansas.

“Ms. Foreman is a passionate educator and proven leader who understands the importance of building strong relationships while maintaining a focus on student achievement,” said Superintendent Ginger Carrabine. “Her experience, dedication, and commitment to excellence make her an outstanding fit for Rayburn Intermediate. We are excited to see the impact she will have as she leads the Raiders and continues the great work happening on the campus.”

As principal, Ms. Foreman will work alongside students, staff, and families to build on Rayburn's tradition of success and create meaningful opportunities for students to excel both in and out of the classroom.

Bryan ISD congratulates Ms. Foreman on her new role and looks forward to the continued success of Rayburn Intermediate School under her leadership.
